The Beretania Street Tennis Club is progressing in a most satisfactory manner.

The Planters' Monthly is out and contains a number of interesting articles.

Only ten members present in the Senate to-day. There was a tired feeling visible.

The W. G. Hall, Kaka, Hawaii, James Makee and Waialeale arrived to-day.

The choir of the second congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral will meet this evening.

Arthur Wilder left in the Peking yesterday to become a lawyer. He will study at the Yale.

Mr. Louis Busnell is the proud father of twin boys—two new defenders of the republic. Congratulations.

Big reduction in Kid Gloves, Corsets, Ribbons, and Hosiery. Ladies' Muslim Underwear at Cost at Sachs' Clearance Sale.

The helmet hats at A. Barnes' store in the "R-public" on King street are being sold rapidly. They are the fashion now.

Colonel W. H. Cornwell will leave in the Australia tomorrow on very important business. He will probably be heard from.

W. H. Cornwell reports that his beautiful mare Minnie, which met with an accident is improving in the most satisfactory manner.

Ladies' Sailer Hats at 25¢, 35¢, 45¢, 50¢, 75¢, and $1 at L. B. Kerr's. A large assortment to select from. The very best value to be had.

A number of che-fa gamblers were fined jointly $350 yesterday in the Police Court. A $1000 fine took place in the evening—no arrests.

The Scottish Thistle Club gives a social to-night. Bob More will be there and his fine tenor will be heard again singing the "old songs."

Makee Island will be used as a camp by Co. A from Saturday till Monday. Other companies will follow Co. A during the next few weeks.

A. Garvie of Bishop & Co's. Bank has accepted a position at Makaweli and has been succeeded by J. H. Mackenzie late of the Hawaiian Gazette Co.

These Scotch Gingham, Chambray, Challis, Indian Linen and Linen Lawns deserve special attention at L. B. Kerr's. Call and inspect them.

The funeral of Captain McIntyre was largely attended yesterday. Vessels in the harbor displayed flags at half-mast out of respect to the deceased pilot.

Among the passengers by the Hall this morning were Major Woodhouse and family, Captain John Ross, Colonel Cornwell, Captain Ashborn, and others.

A call has been issued for a summer school to be held in 1896. The teachers will in the future be deprived even of their well-earned vacation to please a few cranks.

Silky, the famous trotter is now the property of Paul Muhleudorf who obtained her for the small amount of $5. Mr. Ballentine her former owners leave on the Australia.

Another appropriation bill of the "supplementary" kind has been introduced in the House. This time only $104,780.28 are asked for. More than half goes to the military and police departments.

L. B. Kerr has just received a fine assortment of new Suits, Trousers, etc. Also a select stock of Collars, Neckties, Sox and Straw Hats. These varied lines should be seen. Get a move on, gentlemen.

Reports from Kula, Maui, state that the season is very dry. The Japanese who have been induced to take up homesteads from the government are suffering great hardship owing to the awful lack of water.

The trustees of Punahou College have exonerated Professor Homer and stamped him O. K. A continuance of the "scandal" is deprecated by the trustees and probably also by the parents. Why not publish the whole affair?

The Sons of St. George will hold one of their usual pleasant socials at their hall on Fort street, on Monday evening, July 22. Tickets (limited in number to fifty) to admit lady and gentleman $1. are to be had at the Golden Rule Bazaar.

The Board of Underwriters held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon. Gasoline, groves, low grade oil and other supposed fire promoting articles were discussed. The officers for the next year are F. A. Schaefer, president; J. H. Paty, vice-president; J. A. Gilman, secretary and treasurer.

Address all communications to the Editorial Department of the INDEPENDENT to Edmund Norrie. Business letters should be addressed to G. C. Kenyon. This is necessary for the present as the Post Office will withhold all mails addressed simply to the INDEPENDENT, owing to the suit brought by A. V. Gear.

Hawaiian race horses are evidently up to the scratch now. Amario and Autonomy will be shipped tomorrow for San Francisco. Lolokunui and Lord Brock will follow in the near future. Autonomy and Lolokunui were both bred by the late James Gay, the owner of the famous Mokuleia Stables.

The Historical Society held a very interesting meeting last evening at the Y. M. C. A. hall. Messrs. Alexander and Emerson read extracts of diaries of Hunnewell and E. Bailey. On motion of Dr. Rodgers it was resolved to ask certain persons—the choices of the board of managers—to prepare written narrations of the events of January 17, 1893. It is safe to say that the narrations will be very one-sided and without historical value.

The French Representative.

The French Government has raised the rank of its representative to Hawaii, and the successor of the late lamented Consul Verleye will be known as Consul-General and Commissioner. The gentleman who has been appointed is Monsieur Ferrabou who will arrive here in the latter part of August. The new Consul General has held very important consular positions in Spain, and was promoted to the post in Hawaii a few months ago. Monsieur A. Vizzavona will act as Consul and Commissioner for France, with Mr. W. M. Giffard, the late acting Consul as Chancellor. Upon the arrival of Monsieur Ferrabou the office of Chancellor will be resumed by Mr. Vizzavona, and Mr. Giffard who has most efficiently served the French Government for several years will retire. Mr. Vizzavona who is very popular in Honolulu from his former experience returned in the Australia and claims that Hawaii has not grown a bit since his departure. Paris is still nearly as large as the capital of the Hawaiian Republic.

Will Leave.

Among the numerous passengers booked for San Francisco in the Australia tomorrow are: Professor M. M. Scott, Mrs. J. Lovejoy and children, W. W. Goodale, C. H. Willis and wife, C. H. Bishop, C. Burlingame, R. Ballentine, P. Peck, H. Deacon, A. T. Atkinson, J. F. Humburg, Mrs. Wilfong, A. C. Wall, I. Rubinstein, R. V. O. P. Emerson and many others.

Card of Thanks.

The teachers of St. Louis College tender sincere thanks to all sympathizing friends that contributed flowers, and that attended the funeral services of Bro. Martin.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.
